REVERENT THROG PAYS ITS HOMAGE TO UNKNOWN HERO

Gray-Haired Mothers, High Officials And Veterans Gather.

PRESIDENT PLACES WREATH ON CASKET

Body To Lie In State Until Tonight; Ceremonies Armistice Day.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Moving reverently through the shadowed round hall of the national capitol, gray-haired mothers and high officials of the government, battle-scarred war veterans and envoys of world powers paid homage and tribute today to the bier of America's nameless hero.

Beneath a mountain of laurel and roses, he slept the sleep from which none may awake, reposing upon the catafalque which has borne Lincoln, Garfield and McKinley, until he shall be buried at Arlington as a symbol of the love and gratitude of a mighty nation for her honored dead.

Only the wreath placed there by the president of the United States rested on the simple casket when the sun rose over the great white dome of the capitol this morning. At 8 o'clock the solemn procession began. This afternoon scores of floral tributes had been deposited at the bier by religious, fraternal and military organizations, and by representatives of foreign governments.

Thousands who were not permitted to pause at the catafalque filed through the rotunda, offering silent tribute. Tears expressive of the nation's profound sorrow glistened unashamed in many eyes as citizens of high and lower estate mingled in the endless human stream.

The unknown will lie in state until 10 o'clock tonight guarded by a detachment of army engineers who have kept their vigil under the great dome since the body arrived from France last night. After 10 o'clock, none will be admitted until the morning of Nov. 11, when the Armistice day ceremonies begin.

Wreaths Deposited

The first delegation to arrive at the capitol today represented the Federal Council of Churches. It comprised a number of leading ministers, who, after a few minutes at the casket, gave way to members of the American Ambulance Association. Wreaths were then deposited by officials of the Rotary clubs and behind the Rotarians came members of the National Women's Overseas Service League—themselves veterans of grueling days on dusty roads and in muddy trenches.

The United Spanish War Veterans men who served with Roosevelt and Dewey, marched by, their heads bowed. They were followed by officers and men who served with Pershing—members of the forty-second, twenty-eighth and eighty-second divisions of the A. E. F.

At 10 o'clock, Vice President Coolidge entered the rotunda to take part in the first formal ceremonies of the day. They were conducted by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, composed entirely of men who saw service outside the United States.

The veterans were called to attention by their national commander, Col. Robt. G. Woodside of Pittsburgh, who pinned upon the cushion of the casket a gold medal and the insignia of the order and conferred upon the unknown the rank of honorary aide de camp.

U.S. IS TRACING LOST GERMAN PEACE TREATY

Washington, Nov. 10.—Fears that the German-American treaty may have been lost are held by state department officials. It was learned today.

The ratified treaty was sent by mail to Berlin by the state department for an exchange of ratification with the German government. So far no word has been received by the state department indicating that the treaty has been received in Germany.

The state department has cabled Ellis Loring Dresel, American commissioner at Berlin, concerning the whereabouts of the document and has sent out a tracer in an effort to locate it.

Adams Sees Small Son Before Being Returned To Pen

John Townsend, alias Clyde Adams, recently of Salem, who surrendered to George E. Russell Friday night after being at large for four years, having escaped from Illinois state prison where he was sentenced to 45 years for murder, was taken to Illinois Wednesday night from Lisbon where he had been held since his arrest.

Townsend made one request of Sheriff Homer Lewis when he made his confession a week or so ago. He asked to see his little three-year-old son before being taken away. The child was taken to the jail in Lisbon and the scene was an affecting one. The child hugged and kissed the father and did not want to leave him.

French, Member Of School Board 25 Years, Defeated

L. B. French, president of the Salem board of education, who was defeated for re-election to the board at Tuesday's election, has served as a member of the board for 25 years, having been elected in 1895. This is a distinction which, so far as is known, has never been experienced by any other Salem citizen.

When Mr. French assumed his duties on the school board the old high school building on Fourth st. had been condemned. The first year the new building on East Fourth st., now the Junior High building, and the Prospect st. school were built.

From a corps of teachers numbering 26 and a student body of 150 in the high school, Mr. French has done his share in building up the school system to a place where now there are 60 teachers and 550 high school students. All the bonds have been retired on the East Fourth st. and Prospect st. buildings and three bonds have been paid on the new high school building, erected on Garfield ave. in 1914.

For several years Mr. French has been president of the board of education, succeeding S. B. Richards at his death. Through all those years he has been untiring in his efforts to improve the standing of the public schools. His successor on the school board will be George McArthur, prominent leader in labor circles, who was elected Tuesday.

Rector Offers Armistice Day Peace Prayer

Friday, Armistice day, there will be a service and address by Rev. F. S. Eastman with the Holy communion at 10:30 a. m. at the Church of Our Saviour. The church will be open all day that the people may pray for the peace conference.

The following prayer is suggested by Rev. Mr. Eastman: "O Prince of Peace and savior of the world, inspire the world conference with sincerity and brotherhood. Help them to feel their responsibility to thee and their fellow men. 'Crucify the covetous, materialistic spirit so that peace, harmony and progress may be established throughout the world.'"

ELKS AND SOLDIERS MEET BEFORE PARADE

All ex-service men of the city are to meet at the rooms of Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, Broadway at 1 p. m. Friday to join in the Armistice day parade. A large number of veterans of the World war are expected to participate in this event.

Members of the Elks are requested to meet at the Elks club at 1:30 p. m., where they will be provided with Elks paraphs to carry in the parade. Exalted Ruler E. I. Snyder hopes to see at least 100 Elks in the parade.

CANTATA INTERESTS SALEM MUSIC LOVERS

An event of unusual interest to Salem music lovers is the cantata to be given Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, at the First Presbyterian church, under the auspices of the Woman's Bible class of this church.

The cantata will be given by 15 voices, the leading parts to be taken by Miss Grace Orr and Mrs. Ray Gibson. Miss Mary McMurray will be the reader and Mrs. E. E. Dyball will preside at the piano. Preceding the cantata a prologue will be given consisting of a group of songs by Miss Helen Isenacs and a cello solo by Miss Virginia Wilson.

The public is invited. A silver offering will be taken.

Girl Scouts Make Parade Costumes

Following their business session at the Community house Tuesday night, the girls of Red Bird troop, Girl Scouts, captained by Miss Mary Halderman, completed work on their costumes and they will appear in these uniforms in the parade here Friday.

The girls earned money to buy the material for the uniforms and made them at the meetings.

APPEAL RATE REDUCTION

Columbus, Nov. 10.—Appeal from the recent action of the state utilities commission which ordered intrastate freight rates on road building materials reduced 1 1/2 per cent, has been made jointly by 53 railroad companies in a suit filed in the state supreme court. These companies represent all the carriers operating in Ohio.

WANTS FLAGS DISPLAYED

Displaying of American flags in the business section and along the proposed route of parade is especially asked by the Armistice day celebration executive committee in connection with their request for a city-wide flag display.

FERREE SELECTED CHAIRMAN OF RED CROSS ROLL CALL

Membership Campaign Will Be Conducted Between Nov. 11 And 25.

EXACT DATES HAVE NOT BEEN CHOSEN

Salem Chapter Preparing For Systematic Canvass Of City.

L. L. Ferree, president of the Rotary club, has been selected by the chapter, American Red Cross, to serve as roll call chairman for the membership campaign to be staged here sometime between Nov. 11 and 25.

Miss Myra Irwin, secretary of the Salem chapter, stated Thursday that there will be a house to house canvass throughout the city, but the exact dates of the campaign have not been decided. It will continue two or three days.

The regular membership fee of the Red Cross is $1 and sponsors of the organization may give five and ten dollar donations to assist the financial support of the organization for the coming winter. Five dollar subscriptions will be known as contributory memberships while the ten dollar donations will be referred to as sustaining fees.

In each case one dollar of the amount is deducted to cover the regular membership fee and the balance of the money will be used to finance Red Cross activities in Salem.

This will be the fifth annual roll call but in account of the fever epidemic in Salem last fall the campaign was called off. Persons desiring to pay up their membership dues for the past year may do so when they are called upon during this month's canvass.

Cooperation of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs has been assured, it is said.

Hasten Plans To Distribute Soldiers Pay

Money Derived From Bond Sales Will Go Direct To Veterans.

Columbus, Nov. 10.—That the work of distributing the soldier bonus will be expedited as much as possible is the announcement made following a conference held by Attorney General Price, Secretary of State Smith and State Auditor Tracey, constituting the state sinking fund commission which will have charge of the administration of the veterans' compensation fund.

Indications today are that the soldier bonus amendment to the state constitution was adopted by a majority of over 600,000 votes. Secretary of State Smith decided not to make any more tabulations of returns until complete official figures are received.

Former soldiers are telegraphing and telephoning state officials, inquiring about plans of payment of the bonus. State officials stated that an organization will have to be perfected and bonds sold before payments can begin.

It is expected that bonds will sell readily. Bond buyers have asked for copies of the soldier bonus amendment. Money derived from bond sales will be turned into state treasury and paid out to beneficiaries upon order of the sinking fund commissioners without additional action by the state legislature.

COUNTY GIVES SOLDIER MEASURE BIG MAJORITY

Columbiana county voted more than 2 to 1 in favor of the compensation amendment to benefit Ohio ex-service men. Complete figures from Tuesday's election show this measure was given 14,022 votes, while 4,684 opposed it.

Complete figures on the other state issues are: Redistricting measure, yes, 4,938, no, 6,269; poll tax, yes, 4,308, no, 8,173.

County Red Cross To Give Free Supper To Soldiers

The Columbiana County chapter, American Red Cross, which covers practically all of the county except East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salem and East Palestine, is planning to give a free supper to every ex-service man of any war who visits Lisbon on Armistice day, mess calls to be sounded at the city hall at 5, 5:30 and 6 p. m.

During the afternoon and evening, the women of the Christian church will serve coffee and doughnuts free to all soldiers at the Commercial hotel. The county chapter comprises 13 auxiliaries, and all make reports to Miss Hilda Rigby, secretary, at Lisbon. An examination of the records kept at her office shows that during the year ending Oct. 31, 439 families were dealt with on relief or other applications, money was spent for persons in 64 homes, and in scores of others nurses were secured, aid given or conditions bettered.

RICH, YET KEPT POOR

Miss Jacqueline Lebaudy

New York Heiress to a fortune estimated as high as $50,000,000 and yet without sufficient means to spend for her proper education and support. This is the plight of a "poor little rich girl" in real life—Jacqueline Lebaudy—as revealed by an application made to Surrogate Howell, in Nassau county, for a pauper's $40,000 from her father's estate.

The 16-year-old daughter of the eccentric Jacques Lebaudy, self-styled "Emperor of the Sahara," who was slain on Jan. 11, 1919, by his wife, Marie A. Lebaudy, in their home at Westbury, L. I., is one of the richest girls in the world. But despite the vast fortune that rightfully belongs to her, Jacqueline has been unable to enjoy the comforts and luxuries to which a girl of her wealth would naturally be entitled.

For 20 months not a cent was collected from the estate by the widow. Seemingly endless litigation, extending from the courts of Nassau county to France, Chile, Bolivia, England, South Africa and many other points have delayed settlement of the estate.

And because of the law's delay Jacqueline has found herself, not exactly impoverished, but powerless to get possession of even a small part of the great fortune that is hers.

SALEM BAPTISTS ASK CONNEAUT MINISTER TO BECOME PASTOR HERE

At a congregational meeting of the First Baptist church Wednesday evening at the church a call was extended to Rev. Roy Wood, Conneaut, O., to become pastor. Rev. Mr. Wood has been pastor of the Baptist church at Conneaut for four years.

The Salem congregation has been without a pastor since early last summer, following the resignation of Rev. H. L. Kempton, who went to Vancouver, B. C.

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY LEADER TO SPEAK HERE

Mrs. Atwater, St. Louis, vice president of the united missionary societies of the Christian church, will speak at the local church Sunday evening, Dec. 4. Mrs. Atwater has just returned from Mexico.

Plans for this event were made at a meeting of the Missionary society of the Christian church Wednesday evening at the church Monday, Dec. 5, there will be another national worker and two state workers here for an all-day session at this church.

J. Donald Strawn arrived here Thursday morning from Vincennes, Ind., having been called here by the death of his father, A. J. Strawn.

Mayor Issues Proclamation

Friday, Nov. 11, 1921, being Armistice day, a legal holiday, I would ask that each and every citizen pay due respect, in some way appropriate to the occasion, to the soldiers who made the great sacrifices necessary to the successful conclusion of the war.

Our city is having a disarmament demonstration, the program including a street parade and a mass meeting. It will be necessary to keep Depot and Main st. closed for the purpose of parade and a roadway for the mass meeting.

I therefore request that there be no parking of machines on these streets after 12 o'clock noon. The regular police will be assisted in the work of keeping streets clear by special police provided for that purpose.

JOHN W. POST Mayor.

Senator Seeks To Halt Large Navy Program

Washington, Nov. 10.—Unless an immediate suspension of naval construction is decided upon during the first few days of the conference on limitation of armament and Far Eastern questions, Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio, member of the senate foreign relations committee, will demand senate action on his resolution authorizing President Harding to suspend, in whole or in part, the present navy building program of the United States, he announced today.

Senator Pomerene's announcement, following closely a visit he paid to the president at the White House, was regarded as foreshadowing a renewal of his fight to have American naval construction stopped pending any disposition the conference may make of the most vexing problem of reducing naval armament.

Pomerene's idea is that the United States can best lead the way to limitation of naval armament by abandoning temporarily, at least, its present "big navy" program, "as evidence of good faith" to the other powers participating in the conference and that "it means business" when it advocates a "naval holiday."

17 NAMES ARE ADDED TO UNEMPLOYED LIST

Seventeen additional names of unemployed were entered Thursday at the municipal registration being conducted at the city hall by Mayor John W. Post. The registration started Wednesday and will continue until some relief is found for the large number out of work.

Unskilled labor leads in the list of unemployed. Of the 36 names contained on the register approximately two-thirds are of men seeking common labor positions. Machinists and machinists helpers are second in number of unemployed.

FIRST MANTLE OF SNOW

Salem citizens were surprised upon awakening Thursday morning to see a thin mantle of snow covering the ground for the first time this season. A drizzling rain of Wednesday night turned into snow early Thursday morning when the temperature dropped.

ANNOUNCE ROUTE OF ARMISTICE DAY PARADE IN SALEM

Organizations Will Form On Depot St., Autos On Roosevelt Ave.

COUNTERMARCH AT CENTENNIAL PARK

Meeting Will Be In Grand Theater If Weather Is Unfavorable.

Armistice day plans arranged by Trades and Labor assembly give every indication of a celebration here Friday afternoon which will be the greatest since the armistice was signed three years ago.

Support has been pledged by practically every patriotic and civic organization. Stores will be closed all day, manufacturing plants will cease operations at noon and schools will close at the end of the morning session.

A parade rivaling the wild scenes of joy here Nov. 11, 1918, when factories were emptied of workers, stores were deserted by clerks and every activity ceased while the celebration continued throughout the day, is the boast of those behind the demonstration.

"Let's make it another Armistice day of 1918," was the words spoken by Trades and Labor executive when plans for the demonstration were first considered, and with this in mind they have succeeded in obtaining the pledge of 30 civic organizations and lodges for the parade.

Organization Entered At 1:30 p. m. Friday organizations will assemble at the intersection of Mill st. and Depot st. for the parade formation. The following organizations have pledged their appearance:

American Legion and ex-service men; G. A. R.; W. R. C.; Sons of Veterans; school children, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Saxon society with band, Italian society with band, Roumanian society, Slavish society, K. O. T. M., Lady Macabees, K. of P., Moose, Mooseheart Legion, U. C. T., Eagles, Elks, Junior Order U. A. Machinists, Safety First club, Machinist union, Mothers Union No. 47 and 61, Stove mounters, Musicians and Granges.

Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion and granges will enter floats in the parade.

G. A. R. veterans will ride in automobiles generously donated by the Chamber of Commerce and Salem Automobile association.

All organizations taking part in the parade will form on Depot st. headed by Quaker City band at Smith's grocery. Automobiles carrying city officials, members of Trescott post No. 10, G. A. R., and the Woman's Relief corps will be parked on Roosevelt ave just below Main st. to Highway st. and will precede Quaker City band in the parade, which will move promptly at 2 o'clock.

The line of march is out Main st. and McKinley ave to Centennial park entrance and counter march around the park entrance back to the opera house and disband.

If weather conditions are unfavorable the speaking will be in the opera house instead of at the corner of Main st. and Broadway.

Representatives of all organizations and societies taking part in the parade are to meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Macabees hall.

SALEM RUBBER PLANT BEGINS OPERATIONS

Manufacture of tires at the Salem Rubber company plant, formerly owned by the Porter Rubber company was started on a small scale Wednesday when several tire builders were put to work.

Operations will increase steadily with the installation of new machinery and completion of repairs, it was announced.

TO OPEN BUTTER STORE

N. O. Baumach announced Wednesday that he would open a butter and egg store on Chestnut st. in the rear of the Crystal restaurant, about Dec. 1. Mr. Baumach formerly had the dairy department in the Central market on Main st.

State President Will Visit Salem Legion Auxiliary

The Woman's auxiliary of Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, is planning to entertain the state president, Mrs. J. C. Jones, Cleveland Tuesday evening, Nov. 22. The East Palestine auxiliary will be here for the event.

At the Tuesday evening session, which was marked by the largest attendance the auxiliary has had since its organization, it was unanimously decided to enter the Armistice day parade Friday.

Thirty new members were added and a reception will be given for them at the meeting Nov. 22. A supper will be a feature.

The Living And The Dead

THIS week will be remembered long in American and world history. It marks the assembling at Washington of delegates from the greatest powers to confer upon outstanding questions which require adjustment in order to continue the friendship and peace which happily mark their present relations. The immediate result of the adjustment is expected to be the scaling down of naval armaments, and perhaps land forces, to a degree which will greatly relieve the overtaxed peoples of many countries, and thus contribute to the more prompt economic recovery from the war. It is a majestic plan, designed to accomplish by one or two broad strokes of co-operation the relief of hundreds of millions of human beings from the toll and danger of war.

Before the formal sessions begin there will be an observance of Armistice day in a manner singularly beautiful and symbolic. An unknown American soldier who died on the field of honor will be interred in a central place at Arlington, with appropriate services, attended by the president of the United States in behalf of the people thereof, and by the distinguished representatives of foreign nations. This unknown soldier's ashes represent all the agony, tears and blood which America contributed to the cause of free government during the late war.

In every hamlet in the country there will be thoughts of this unknown lad, who represents the boys of each neighborhood. Mothers will shed a tear for him, fathers will silently thank God for him, and the younger generation will feel that he is perhaps one whom they have missed and whose fate is unknown. With the flag folded about him he will rest forever within sight of the capitol. His grave will be a shrine of patriotism for all time.

When the living turn to begin their conference, what will be the lesson they have learned from the dead? It should be the lesson which Lincoln expounded over the ashes of the dead at Gettysburg—that the living should highly resolve that the dead shall not have died in vain, and that government of the people, by the people, for the people shall not perish from the earth.

Japan's premier, a man of the common people, has been stricken by an assassin because he favored a policy of conciliation and justice. The forces of reaction are never idle. Evil works incessantly, gnawing at the foundations of free government in every country. The price of liberty is eternal vigilance now as always. The stronger nations owe it to themselves to co-operate for their own safety as well as for the welfare of the world.

In a true sense the nameless American lad to be buried on Armistice day was a soldier of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. He fought their fight, and his blood helped to cement the foundation of free government in each country. Hence those nations have a right to honor his funeral, and a duty to co-operate in the work of establishing free government.

If that is not the basic purpose of the conference, and if the nations' delegates do not come in good faith to promote that cause, it would be better that they should not stand at the tomb of the unknown dead and pay lip service to a cause that does not inspire their hearts.

The nations in conference at Washington will endeavor in a freer and better way to accomplish what the peace conference at Paris was prevented from accomplishing. As mighty equals they will gather here, each bringing its patent of independence and its pledge of voluntary co-operation. No proposal can be made which would infringe upon the sovereignty of any of them. Whatever they do will be done with the grace and majesty of a sovereign, exercising but not diminishing his independent powers.

The merging of the wills of these sovereigns will be a commanding new force in the world, but it will not be at the expense of the independence of any of them. This maintenance of full independence marks the essential difference between the Washington conference and the peace conference at Paris. It cannot be truthfully asserted that the nations bound by the covenant of the League of Nations are absolutely free to exercise their independent will in adjusting their relations with other nations. Only a few governments are members of the league council, which is the inner ring controlling the league. All other governments are pined in a subordinate position and are not even entitled to know what the inner ring is doing.

At Paris the equality of nations was denied. At Washington the equality of nations is the cornerstone of the conference. At Paris a few men in secret framed an international league which they attempted to impose upon the world. At Washington the few men representing the nations concerned will endeavor to reach an understanding concerning their nations alone, and their work will be subject at all times to the approval of the peoples concerned. At Paris the peoples were denied information. At Washington no attempt will be made to bind the nations to fight. At Paris the "big four" arranged that whenever a nation fixed a limitation upon its armament, the limit could not be exceeded without the consent of a body outside of the nation. At Washington no attempt will be made to set up an international body having supervisory powers over any nation.

If the living do other work in good faith the dead will not have died in vain.

INGROWN TOE NAIL TURNS OUT ITSELF

A noted authority says that a few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrown nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost overnight.

"Outgro" is a harmless, antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

CLAIMS COURT NEEDS RELIEF

WORK OF THIS FEDERAL TRIBUNAL HAS BEEN INCREASED GREATLY BY WORLD WAR.

BILL NOW BEFORE CONGRESS

Would Authorize the Appointment of Examiners, Thus Expediting the Court's Business and Saving Considerable Money and Time.

By EDWARD B. CLARK.

Washington.—The great war has brought an added amount of business to many of the United States courts, but the tribunal which fairly must stagger under the weight of accumulating work is the United States court of claims which sits in the city of Washington.

Comparatively little ever is written about the court of claims, and yet under its jurisdiction come many of the most interesting suits at law which the courts of the country know. It is understood that even today the court of claims has cases before it which have grown out of the Revolutionary war and of the early Indian wars in which the United States was engaged.

It was only recently that under a blanket act of congress the last French spoliation claims were settled. These grew out of losses to American merchants engaged in sea trade during the time of the troubles with France in the closing days of the Eighteenth century.

The great war is responsible for the accumulation of many cases before the United States court of claims. Any citizen of the United States who thinks that he suffered a loss for which the government was responsible is at liberty to enter a suit in this court, even if the amount of loss was trivial. The court, in fact, can take up cases in which the loss runs anywhere from one cent to a billion dollars, although it is not presumable that what might be called nickel or 50-cent cases ever will trouble the jurists.

Today there is one case before the court in which evidence is being taken which involves a claim for damages amounting to $125,000,000. This case has to do with certain losses supposed to have been sustained by reason of some trouble in which submarines and torpedoes played a part.

Plan to Expedite Its Cases.

Today before congress there is a bill in the form of an amendment to the law governing the operation of the court of claims, which is intended to expedite the business of the tribunal. The jurists desire that they shall be given authority to appoint examiners who may go into the merits of a good many of the cases in advance of the court proceedings. Today this is the right of all the federal courts except this particular one, and yet this court, it is said, needs the authority more than any other. The bill has passed the senate, but it is now hung up in the committee on judiciary of the house of representatives. Lawyers say that its passage will save the people money and the court much time. Court of claims cases under present conditions are apt to drag through long periods of time.

When a United States citizen secures a verdict in his favor from the court of claims for damages against the United States government his troubles are not ended. The court cannot order a government official to levy on the government for the damages which it has awarded. The man who has a verdict in his favor must go to congress and secure the passage of an appropriation bill to meet the amount which the court has decided as his due.

How One Man Collected.

Once in a while a man who has suffered in connection with the loss of money goes direct to congress for relief. Here is a case in point. A good many years ago there was a young army officer stationed in the Philippines who had charge of some government work. He was authorized under the regulations to pay money to certain laborers for overtime pay, but instead of calling to the Philippines the news of the revocation of the order, it transpired the information by mail, although the order went into effect the day that it was issued in Washington.

For three weeks the young officer in the Philippines did not know that the order had been revoked. In perfect good faith and in obedience to the pre-existing order he had paid $12.50 overtime money to a couple of government employees. The United States government was wholly to blame in this matter, but it absolutely refused to reimburse the lieutenant for the money that he had spent in obedience to the regulations governing the case.

This young officer, who was a cavalryman named Conrad, had the fighting spirit in him. He took the case to congress and fought it for five or six years. Finally the reluctant lawmakers passed an appropriation bill refunding to the officer the $12.50 which he had paid out for Uncle Sam years before.

There's a Conscience.

OUR READERS

Patriotism

Editor of The News: I have noted different articles in the last two issues of your paper that I have given considerable thought and have come to the decision that I will be greatly relieved if I write my candid opinion of said articles.

First—All business will suspend Friday to observe Armistice day.

On reading this article I note that the business men have decided to close their places of business all day, for which I think they should be commended, as I believe they do it in a spirit of patriotism. On reading further, I note that the public schools are to close for one-half a day only.

The decision of the board of education on this question is certainly open to criticism. Is not the school the institution through which patriotism should be imbedded in the heart of every child? Friday, Nov. 11, Armistice day, is one of the greatest National yes international holidays this nation of ours has ever had. Were not more people all over the world made happy on Nov. 11, 1918, than any other day in the history of the world? It seems as though the patriotism that ran so high three or four years ago has been almost forgotten by many of our citizens. For shame, to think of holding school on the anniversary of such a wonderful day. Officials of St. Paul's Parochial school are to be commended for the action they have taken.

Second—Shops will close, whistles blow at hour of armistice. This is another disgrace added to Salem's already long list, where patriotism is concerned. I am told that all shops ceased work the day the armistice was signed, and every body was crazy with patriotism, and well they might be, for it was the greatest day this generation ever had, or will experience.

But as great as that was, Friday, Nov. 11, 1921, is more sacred to me and should be more sacred to all good Americans, for is it not the day that the unknown soldier is to be buried in Arlington cemetery, across the Potomac, from our capital.

Looking back over the last four or five years, one is led to believe that the patriotism of many of our manly fathers was attached more to the almighty dollar than it was to our nation.

Third—Kiwanis host to ex-service men of Salem. On reading this heading my first thought was, that

I must have failed to receive my invitation, as I happen to be an ex-service man, but, on reading further I learned that such was not the case, as only 50 had been invited. I presume the Kiwanis felt they could not accommodate more, but why should people (who often read headlines only) be let to believe that all ex-service men had been entertained?

I understand the banquet to be given Friday evening by one of our local citizens, is open to all ex-service men, but as it appears to be given as a matter of form, and not given for the love of the ex-service men, I feel the same as many others with whom I have talked, that the banquet will be honored by my absence.

(Signed) EX-SERVICE MAN.

THEME ONE OF EXCEPTIONAL APPEAL

"The Great Moment" is a love story—a story of the ties that bind two hearts—ties which cannot be severed by time, by distance, by prejudice, wealth, or any of the other elements which affect true love; a story involving a most unusual situation—that of a man and woman who separate even when desperately in love with each other, because each believes that the other wants his freedom. Feeling outraged, they hide behind their self-pride and try to draw away from the spell of love, which however proves unavailing.

COUPLING Armistice Day with the great movement to secure disarmament, was an eminently happy thought. The day that brought the cessation of hostilities and heralded peace, should be forever associated with the work of peace perpetuation.

No day in the world's history has meant more to warring humanity than Armistice Day. Its significance and its blessings must never be forgotten.

The Hug and Kiss On Christmas Morning

—from Daughter or Wife, are among the things that put Happiness into Homes and Life into Living. They are well worth the year of waiting, but, like every Precious Treasure, they must be earned.

A Man's Work is his Life—his pleasure and his pain, his hope and his fear; the outlet for all his energies and the fulfillment of all his desires; demanding all and giving all; coaxing, driving, diverting by its endless change and variety.

A Woman's Home is her World—Is it a Bright World? Within its four walls her life is spent; always the same walls and the same deadly monotony of tasks; no change of face or scene or problem; small chance for a Happy Life unless you plant Happiness there.

Woman was cast from the clays of Tenderness, Imagination, Emotion and Art—and Man from their opposites. Woman's Nature demands and must have expression for itself and fulfillment of its mission, else there can be no Happiness.

But chiefly the Woman is Emotion—you know it, I know it, she knows it—and the Language of the Emotions is Music. Therefore give her the means to express the Greatest Force God placed within her. Let his be a Musical Christmas—for Her sake.

Reduce Those Dangerous Swollen Veins

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunches to become normal, but also reduces goiter, enlarged glands and wens.

Ask any firstclass druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore if this wonderful discovery does not produce the results anticipated, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once. Generous sample on receipt of 15 cents, silver or stamps. International Laboratories, Rochester, N. Y. Your druggist, or J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding's Pharmacy or Bolger & French can supply you.

RED CROSS GIVES ANNUAL BUDGET

$19,361,657 Allotted for Current Program of Relief and Service.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Medical Aid for European Children Will Cost $6,000,000 This Year.

Washington.—Expenditures totalling $19,361,657 for carrying through its program of relief and services in the United States and overseas are outlined in the budget of the American Red Cross for the current fiscal year. This total is more than $5,000,000 lower than the expenditure during the last fiscal year, when the disbursements reached $24,492,741, it is announced at National Headquarters in a statement calling attention to the necessity of continued support of the organization by response to the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24, if the vital work of the society is to be effectively carried on.

Outstanding among the items of the domestic budget is the appropriation of $3,600,000 for work in behalf of the disabled ex-service man and his family. This appropriation represents the amount allotted to this work from National Headquarters only and does not take into consideration the millions being spent in chapters for relief of the World War veteran. It is in the chapter that the greater amount is spent in meeting this obligation of the Red Cross, the announcement continues, as manifested by figures of the fiscal year 1920-1921 when the total was approximately $9,000,000, of which $2,692,694 represented the disbursement of National Headquarters while the remainder was the chapters' contribution to this field of Red Cross service.

Vast Work for Disabled

Chief among the sub-divisions of the appropriation for work with veterans is that which concerns itself with assistance to disabled men and women in government hospitals. This item of $1,700,000, an increase of more than $500,000 over the appropriation for the same work in last year's budget, will provide those personal services for the disabled and their families which are indispensable to supplement those provided by the government. The director of the Veterans' Bureau has recently expressed his desire that the Red Cross should continue and extend these "humanizing services." Other items of the appropriation for veterans' relief are proportionately increased. An additional appropriation of $400,000 has been made for Red Cross work in connection with regular Army and Navy hospitals and with the regular Army and Navy.

For disaster relief, the Red Cross has set aside for the current twelve months an appropriation of $543,976, virtually doubling the appropriation for the same purpose for the fiscal year 1920-1921.

More than $2,000,000 is provided for service and assistance to the 3,600 Red Cross chapters by the national organization.

Helping Destitute Children

Other items of the domestic budget include $498,546 for miscellaneous activities, including contributions restricted for special purposes and $708,600 for management. Each of these items represents large reductions over similar appropriations of the previous year.

From a fund of $10,000,000, $5,000,000 of which was contributed through the European Relief Council campaign and $5,000,000 allotted by the Red Cross for child welfare work in Europe, there remains $8,705,108 still available, of which it is estimated that $6,000,000 will be required for this work during the current year. For Red Cross participation in the joint effort to relieve famine conditions in Russia, for final work in the China famine, for Junior Red Cross and other overseas activities including the closing of the old general relief program in Europe $4,978,000 is made available.

In announcing the national budget, the Red Cross makes it clear that the figures do not include chapter expenditures or place any cash estimate on the invaluable service of volunteers in chapters.

CARRYING ON SERVICE FOR DISABLED VETERANS OF THE WORLD WAR THAT IS COSTING $10,000,000 A YEAR, THE AMERICAN RED CROSS IS HELPING FULFILL THIS NATION'S OBLIGATION TO ITS DEFENDERS. HELP THE RED CROSS CONTINUE THIS WORK BY ANSWERING THE ANNUAL ROLL CALL NOVEMBER 11-24, 1921.

WANT A YEAR BOOK? ASK COUNTY AUDITOR

Lisbon, O.Nv. 10.—County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton has received quite a large shipment of the "Year Books" from the state printer which are now to be had for the asking. The "Year Book" is Vol. 169 of the Laws of Ohio as passed by the last session of the legislature.

There were two parts to the "Year Book" of the 1919 session, but one volume was sufficient to cover all the work of the last session. This volume contains 716 pages of printed matter, and every new law or change in an old act is shown in the new "Year Book."

Quite a demand for the "Year Book" has developed during past few years from laymen, although all attorneys of the county usually watch for the arrival of the volume.

Belief cost him his job

Reporter was Discharged Because He Had Faith in Practicability of Edison's Electric Lamp.

"Did you ever hear of the New York newspaper reporter who lost his job, only a few years ago, because he wrote an article for his paper about Edison's demonstration of his first electric lamp? The publisher said he had no place on his paper for a darned fool who would believe you could spirit electricity through a wire that had no hole in it, and fired the reporter unceremoniously.

The speaker was a grizzled electrical engineer, who has attained the age when he is inclined to look back on things as they were and to attempt to understand the forces that have brought about the marvelous changes he has witnessed within his lifetime. "You know," he continued, "as I look back upon the development of electrical engineering, it seems to me that advertising has had more to do with it than any other factor. Electrical companies are willing to go almost any length in the development of new conveniences because they have learned not only about electricity, but have also learned what is more important—how to tell the people about their products, through advertising.

"Suppose I have an idea for a new kind of electric lamp. I could afford to spend nearly any amount in perfecting it, because, within a few weeks after it is ready for the market I can, through advertising, get it on the shelves of thousands of merchants, and I can have millions of people asking for it by name."

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers! Watch Your Daughters' Health

Health Is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established she needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is then passing through is so critical and may have such far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that beset this period.

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let her overstudy. If she complains of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter, make life easier for her. She needs thoughtful care for a few years.

In all such cases Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be given as it is especially adapted for such conditions. It contains nothing that can injure and can be taken in perfect safety.

Read how Mrs. Eicher helped her daughter. She says:

"At the age of sixteen my daughter was having trouble every month. She had pains across her back and in her sides. Every month her back would pain her so she could not do her work and would have to lie down. My married daughter recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I read the books which were left at my door. She took it faithfully and is now regular and has no pain. We recommend the Vegetable Compound and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers."—Mrs. KATIE EICHER, 4034 N. Fairhill St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Williams will profit by her own experience. She says: "When I was thirteen years old I had sick spells each month and as I was very backward I would bear the pain and my mother knew nothing about it. I read in the daily paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took my own spending money and bought a bottle. It helped me so much that I took it regularly after that until I had taken two bottles and I did not have any more pain or backache and have been a healthy, strong woman. I am now 39 years old and have a little girl of my own, and when she gets old enough I shall give her none other than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. C. E. WILLIAMS, 2437 W. Toronto St., Philadelphia, Pa.

For almost fifty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been relieving women, young and old, of ailments peculiar to their sex. Ask your neighbor about it, for in every neighborhood there are women who know of its merits.

Thousands of letters similar to the above are in the files of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., and for years such letters have been published. Surely it is worth your while to make a fair trial of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent to you free upon request. Write to The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information.

Cakes by Parcel Post. Cakes can be sent long distances by parcel post without so much as cracking the icing, if they are packed in this way: Place the cake on a large sheet of heavy waxed paper and apply the frosting to extend on the paper. Plastering the cake to the paper helps to keep it in position. Fold the rest of the paper neatly around the cake and slip under it a piece of cardboard or thin board the exact size of the cake. Put both cake and board into a strong cardboard box. A corrugated box is preferable, as it lessens the jar upon its contents. Fill the box with sawdust or bran, which should be allowed to settle to the bottom of all the crevices. Finally, wrap the box in heavy paper and tie it with a strong cord.

TIME HELD RIPE FOR CHANGE

Ohio "in Rut" in Matter of Treatment of Her Wards.

MACAYEAL AIRS HIS VIEWS

His One Ambition, He Says, Is to Place Management of State Institutions Above Politics—Railroad Labor Difficulty Not Entirely Settled Yet—Threatened Strike of Coal Miners Waning—State News of Interest.

Columbus, Nov. 10.—"Ohio has been running along in the same rut too long in the matter of the treatment of her unfortunate wards and the time is ripe for some drastic changes," declares Director of Public Welfare Howard S. MacAyeal.

"I am going to accept every invitation possible to speak, with the hope that I can arouse the people of Ohio to the great issue. The time has come for a change and every candidate for the legislature should be compelled to state whether he stands for the advancement of state institutions, or permitting them to travel along in the same old channel," asserts Dr. MacAyeal.

He says it is his one ambition to place the management of the various state institutions above politics and to bring hospitals and asylums of the state to such a stage that they will be no longer a disgrace to the state.

He declares patients in Ohio hospitals for the insane are being treated today exactly as they were 20 years ago and that a man marked incurable is simply looked upon as an inmate for the rest of his life, instead of an attempt being made to cure him. He also asserts that many remarkable cures could be accomplished if patients for whom there is hope could be segregated from the hopeless cases and an effort made to cure them. This, however, he declares, is impossible so long as they are handicapped by lack of funds.

Competitive bidding will not be advertised for contracts for building the new $25,000 dormitory at the Soldiers' and Sailors' home at Sandusky, according to an announcement from the state welfare department. The work will be done on the "force contract" system and practically all the work will be done by prisoners from Mansfield reformatory, according to the announcement.

Brick to be used in the building is being shipped from the state brick plant at Junction City, and with prisoners doing the work, officials claim a much better building can be erected than was planned when the legislature voted $25,000 under the impression the work was to be done on contract.

The threatened general strike of coal miners in Ohio, as a result of the decision of Federal Judge Anderson of Indianapolis, allowing an injunction against the check-off system, is waning, according to reports from Athens, where the first miners walked out.

Practically all the miners about Athens have returned to work, according to the report, and indications are that unless the check-off system is revoked in Ohio, there will be no further trouble here.

The operators meantime are sitting tight, awaiting the result of the appeal filed with the circuit court of appeals at Chicago.

Members of the Southern Ohio Coal Exchange, in session in Columbus Monday, intimated no action would be taken toward putting the injunction in effect here until the Chicago court has taken action.

"There is nothing we can do until the legal aspects of the matter are cleared up," said Walter D. McKinney, secretary of the exchange. He said the check-off would be taken Thursday, payday, the same as in the past.

The extending of community school courses in the use of modern farm machinery to at least 40 school districts in the state is now being planned by the department of agriculture of Ohio State university.

In communities where interest is along other lines, or where the minimum enrollment of 15 can not be reached, as required for the machinery course, high school vocational instructors will offer courses for adults in dairying, farm management, poultry raising or other subjects in which the locality is particularly interested.

Machinery courses can be given only in districts where there are high schools with vocational departments, though regular high school instructors will not conduct such work, but turn it over to a special teacher in rural engineering provided by the state. Communities desiring such special schools are required also to secure from their school boards assurance of a special room, with heat and light and enough equipment to conduct the course. This room may be in any building accessible to those wishing the course; it need not be the high school building.

Choice is allowed between two distinct courses in farm machinery, one dealing entirely with tractors and the other with the care and repair of other important implements used on the up-to-date farm.

The railroad strike may not be entirely settled yet, according to advices from Cleveland.

Circulars sent out from Cleveland to the members of the "Big Five" brotherhoods, declare the strike vote will be revived and put into effect, unless the railroad labor board keeps the promises made to the heads of the brotherhood.

The circular, signed by Warren S. Stone, president of the engineers; W. S. Carter, president of the firemen; W. G. Lee, president of the trainmen, and L. W. Sheppard, president of the switchmen, declares the strike was called off because not only the executive heads of the brotherhoods, but the local chairmen as well, were threatened with arrest on charges of conspiracy unless such action were taken, and in the promise of the board that "working rules and disputes would be disposed of before any further wage reductions were considered."

The officials declare this promise of the board must be adhered to.

A call for the organization of committees in every county of the state for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals has been sent out by James A. Maddox of Columbus, head of the state seal committee.

The sale of seals will start immediately after the close of the annual Red Cross membership roll campaign, which starts Nov. 11 and ends on Thanksgiving day. The quota of seals for Ohio is 30,000,000.

Children of Ohio and all other parts of the country are not getting sufficient food, according to Professor J. F. Lyman of Ohio State university. They get plenty such as it is, says the professor, but "malnutrition is common in all parts of America and among all classes," because the food is not properly balanced.

"The main deficiency is in vitamin-bearing foods, such as vegetables, fruit and milk. Failure to provide such food for growing children leads to conditions which differ only in degree from conditions in the Balkans," declared the professor. "There, as here, the principal lack is in vitamins. There they do not have them. Here we do not know how to properly use the food we have," continued Professor Lyman.

Next week is "club week" at Ohio State university, when over 600 farm boys and girls who toiled last summer in field and kitchen to win championships offered by the university, will be guests of the state school.

As a part of the reward for their summer's work they will be brought to Columbus for a week, lodged at good hotels and be the guests of honor for a full week at lectures, shows and other stunts, arranged by the university for their exclusive benefit.

On Friday, the last day of the meeting, the boys and girls will be given an opportunity to tell of how they won their championships.

Announcement comes from Washington that the nomination of Rabbi Joseph Kornfeld of Columbus by President Harding as minister to Persia is more than likely to be confirmed by the senate, as Senator Atlee Pomerene, Democrat, has taken up the cudgel in his behalf and is fighting for the senate's confirmation of the president's nomination.

Pomerene is said to have told senators "Kornfeld is one of the most cultured men I know. He will make an excellent diplomat."

"Teaching farming by the use of moving pictures" is the latest proposal of the Ohio State university school of extension, according to plans recently announced by the agricultural extension workers.

The adoption of the proposal comes as a result of questionnaires sent out by the college to various parts of the state, the answers to which, according to J. E. McClintock, extension editor of the college, indicate that 12 whole counties and 511 other scattered rural communities want such work extended to their communities.

The plan involves the use of mobile projecting machines, such as were used in France for the entertainment of the soldiers, and to circulate films of special interest to farmers.

State Fire Marshal H. A. Dykeman announces that fire records for September are complete. There were 30 fires reported with a loss of $70,693, all on buildings not provided with lightning rods. Lightning was the big cause of fire during this month.

There were 29 fires due to bad electrical wiring and the loss was $69,981. Firebugs accounted for 17 fires, and gasoline 11 more.

Defective flues are already starting the winter's campaign. Because people did not look over their heating plants this fall, Ohio has already had a dozen unnecessary fires.

Smokers' carelessness cost $25,345 in September and match carelessness $179,705 more.

There were 270 fires in September and the property loss was $566,870, over $75,000 more than the same month of 1920. There were also 34 more fires this September than last.

CLEVER SYSTEM OF SIGNALS

More Ingenious Scheme Than That Contemplated by Germans Probably Never Was Devised.

German war secrets are now being disclosed in scientific literature. At the close of the conflict the Germans in their laboratories were working on secret-signal lights of special character. To the ordinary observer nothing would be present to indicate that the light was sending out signals, but changes would be going on which would be apparent to an observer equipped to view it with a suitable optical device.

Different principles were employed for accomplishing this. In one of them polarized light was to be sent out by the signal, the character of which would change in accordance with the dots and dashes of the code. When viewed through properly fitted binoculars, the color would no longer be white but would alternate between red and green. In another method, a glass screen containing compounds of the rare element didymium was arranged to alternate in the beam of light with another screen of suitable shade. When the resulting light was viewed with binoculars equipped with prisms, a black line would appear in the yellow region of the spectrum formed whenever the didymium glass was interposed, permitting the signals to be read. Another method consisted in first breaking up the light at the source into a spectrum across which was placed one or more wires cutting out narrow regions of color, and these were arranged to be moved back and forth a short distance along the spectrum in signaling. The colors were then recombined into white light and transmitted. With binoculars provided with suitable prisms to reform the spectrum, the signal was perceived in the motion of dark bands back and forth along the spectrum, corresponding to the movement of the wires at the transmitting station. One important application of this method of signaling would be at sea.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

PROMISE TO IMPROVE HIGHWAYS IN WESTERN SECTION OF COUNTY

County commissioners are getting matters in shape to macadam surface two miles of the East Rochester-North Georgetown road early next spring. The road will be 14 feet wide and the improvement is one that has been long sought after by folk in that community.

Postmaster W. S. Potts of Lisbon has lost none of his old time cunning as a lawyer and this week appeared before the county commissioners in behalf of residents of the Dunganon mail route, who wanted that highway so improved that mails would not be discontinued during the winter.

The commissioners have agreed to give the township trustees slag for the road, providing the trustees would spread the material where it was needed the most. Much of the labor on this road will be donated by the farmers in that community.

County commissioners have approved the scheme to improve Duquesne st. extending out of Columbiana on a 50-50 basis. The township trustees are associated in this work and when completed there will be an improved road between Columbiana and Leetonia.

Every effort possible will be made by the county commissioners to secure state aid on the East Palestine-East Liverpool road by way of Free-ericktown. There are about five miles of unimproved road between the two cities. It is likely that when the final survey for this improvement is made, the two Free-ericktown hill roads will be eliminated.

REPUBLICANS ELECTED IN CANTON AND AKRON

Canton, Nov. 10.—C. C. Curtis, Republican, won for mayor over H. R. Witter, D. by a narrow margin of 313 in one of the hottest contests ever held for mayor in Canton.

Akron, Nov. 10.—D. G. Rybolt, Republican, is elected mayor of Akron over Wm. Williams, the Democratic nominee, by a majority of 3,508, according to complete returns.

The electorate also elected two Republican councilmen-at-large and seven ward councilmen.

Youngstown, Nov. 10.—Charles Crowe, R., was elected mayor of Niles for the fourth time with little opposition.

Mayor Wilson, R., was re-elected mayor of Struthers by 200 majority. Thirty out of 32 precincts at Warren gave Mayor McBride, D., a lead of 938.

W. H. Cunningham, R., was re-elected

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Budgets Filed By Officials Are Held Up

Probate Judge Riddle Only One To Seek Reduced Appropriation.

Lisbon, Nov. 10.—In a little while it will be decided whether the appropriations for office salaries as outlined by various county officers will be allowed by the board of county commissioners. Requests for appropriations for the fiscal year were filed this week with the commissioners, but final decision was reserved for the present.

County Treasurer W. R. Phillips filed a request for an appropriation for $7,200 to care for the people in his office, and showed that the appropriation granted a year ago was $7,080.

Sheriff Gomar Lewis has asked for $4,980, and an appropriation of $900 for outside special deputies, to be used when the occasion arises.

Clerk of Courts John T. Burns has asked for an appropriation of $4,800 and County Auditor Charles E. Hamilton has requested an appropriation of $10,820.

Probate Judge Lodge Riddle has filed a petition for an appropriation of $6,000, and showed that last fiscal year there was an appropriation of $6,304.64. Receipts of this office for 1921 were $11,110, expenses $10,927. Receipts for 1920 were $532 and expenses $10,951.

County Recorder John R. Reark seeks an appropriation of $4,400, and during the last fiscal year the appropriation for this office was $4,060.

After these official requests were read by the commissioners, the board held a conference with Common Pleas Judge James Moore, when certain phases of the law regarding fees were interpreted.

Now--as to Economy

ECONOMY is not only a matter of saving. It consists also of spending money to best advantage. You can often add materially to the effectiveness of your purchases by reading the advertisements in this paper.

Advertising identifies goods of unquestioned value. When a store or a manufacturer puts his name on a product and tells you about it, you may rest assured that it is worth while. It does not pay to advertise merchandise that is not sound. The come-backs are too costly.

Make a practice of reading advertisements. Read them as news from the business world, published for your benefit.

Sometimes, they keep you from making an unwise purchase by pointing out just why one article suits your needs better than another. A step toward real economy!

Often, they help you live better and dress better and make more of your income in every way. Also, real economy.

And you will find that they frequently save you money.

Economy, Certainly!

EAGLES TO PRACTICE FRIDAY MORNING FOR GAME IN AFTERNOON

Final practice of Salem Eagles preparatory to the game at 3 p. m. Friday at Reilly field with the Kent Athletic club will be held at Reilly field Friday morning and all candidates are expected to be present.

While the actual strength of the visiting team is unknown reports come here that they have an excellent forward passing combination and a heavy line.

Sunday the Eagles will journey to Sebring to stack up against the semi-pro eleven of that town which has met with only one defeat this season. Whether Sebring will play here Thanksgiving depends upon the outcome of the game. At the first clash of the two teams Salem was defeated 14 to 6 and if Salem evens the count Sebring will appear here Thanksgiving.

WELTMAN'S QUARTET HERE FOR CONCERT

Leon Weltman's string quartet arrived in Salem this afternoon for their concert at the Methodist church this evening. The quartet, consisting of four disciples of the illustrious Russian composer Tchaikowsky, is an exceedingly popular company in Ohio

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

She kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy, With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound and look years younger.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork, they get sluggish; the elimination tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders. Jad Salts is inexpensive and can't injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

and has appeared in almost every city of any size in this state. Janie Gordon Weltman, a dramatic interpreter, accompanies the quartet this year. The local committee has perfected an arrangement which greatly adds to the seating capacity of the church. Ticket sales practically fill the normal. This was necessary because the season house capacity and a large special sale is anticipated for the concert this evening.

This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. How Esther Foiled a Holdup

By WILLIAM FALL

(© 1921, Western Newspaper Union.)

"You are not afraid, Esther?"

"Not a particle, Nettie. Why should I be? This is not my first time on duty here, you know."

"Yes, but at night and all by yourself! I should think you would die with loneliness."

"What! With your dear brother Paul to think of? Why, Nettie, just imagine it—he may be a passenger on the very train I send speeding to the city at midnight."

Esther Manning mounted the iron ladder leading to the track tower, half a mile from the nearest house—a small scattered settlement.

Her father had been dispatcher at Tower 10 for fifteen years, and before that in other employment with the Central Northern. The night shift, with its chill mists and tiresome treadmill system, had been a hardship to old Mr. Manning. He was particularly indisposed this particular evening, and Esther had insisted on acting as his substitute.

She was engaged to Paul Reynolds, who had been for a year in the West and was expected home daily. His sister had accompanied Esther to the tower. The latter waited till Bruce Vallette, the day operator, was relieved by Esther. Then the two walked away, leaving Esther alone at her post of duty in the gathering dusk.

Esther had only the Night Flyer to take care of, due at 12:03.

She looked to see that the west semaphore was set for clear tracks. Half a mile distant where the big curve began was the east semaphore. She noted that the go-ahead white light showed.

Esther roused from her day dream reverie with something of a shock. Very suddenly the trap door in the floor was given a great push, as if from a man's strong shoulder. Esther had taken the precaution to bolt it. She heard a muffled ejaculation of disappointment. Warned—more, alarmed—Esther sprang up quickly and threw the tin shade over the lamp on the operator's table.

She ran to the window and glanced down. It was just in time to see a lurking form steal from the tower base and sink over behind the cattle pens. Here he was joined by two men. A startled cry escaped Esther's lips. The white clear signal was not visible. It had been changed to the red stop signal. Esther sprang to the semaphore levers.

"The wires are cut!" she gasped, white and trembling and almost overcome.

Within fifteen minutes the Night Flyer was due.

"Train robbers!" breathed Esther, agitated. "What shall I do?"

She imagined the Night Flyer at the mercy of lawless, armed bandits.

Esther summoned all her innate bravery and good sense. In one corner of the tower room stood a repeating rifle. She threw up a west window, took aim at the semaphore, and fired.

No result. Again—and there was a crash. She had shot out the white light signal! Surely the Night Flyer would take some heed of this circumstance!

A second rapid suggestion came to her mind, and she ran for a corner where a big bundle of red fire signal fuses lay.

Carrying these to the table, she selected one. Drawing the screen from the lamp, she fired the end of the fuse and gave it a fling. It landed, hissing and spluttering, amid the loose hay near the cattle pens. In an instant the mass burst into flames.

Bang—bang—bang! A hail of bullets from the revolver of the man left on guard rattled across the crashing windows of the tower. Then he darted down the rails in search of his companions.

Up dashed the Night Flyer. Esther was down from the tower, rifle in hand, a figure heroic as the train came to a stop and its crew surrounded her. In an instant an armed party was made up, proceeding to the east semaphore to investigate the situation at that point.

The baffled bandits had fled, but preparations were discovered to hold up the train in true wild western fashion—the train which carried in its express car over half a million in currency.

The leader of the investigating group was a young man from the West—Esther's lover. When the Night Flyer resumed its run, Paul Reynolds came back to the tower to greet the brave girl soon to become his wife.

The railroad company did something more than pension old Mr. Manning. They sent Esther a substantial wedding present as a reward for her heroic efforts in saving the Night Flyer.

Greek Coins Perfect.

Between the rude issues of Asia Minor and the most perfect coins of the Greek states an interval of three centuries, during which all that is known, or probably ever will be known, in beautifying a steel die is achieved. So far as design is concerned, the Greek coins were simply perfect. No modern coins can compare with them in beauty. Roman coins of the imperial period are of the greatest historical interest. From the sad and furrowed face of Julius to the self-satisfied effigy of Domitian extends an interval of 100 years, filled with the most noteworthy events of the history of Rome.

"VAMPS" WHO MADE HISTORY

By JAMES C. YOUNG.

(© by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

A BEAUTY OF OLD NEW YORK.

EVERYONE who knows New York has seen the famous Jumel mansion which crowns the highest point on Manhattan Island, overlooking the Harlem river. The woman who ruled there in better days was one of the most fascinating personalities of American history.

She was born on a ship in 1769 and lost her mother at birth. When the vessel reached Providence a kindly woman adopted the child and gave her the homely name of Eliza Bowen, better known as Betty. She soon gave promise of unusual beauty and a nimble wit. At seventeen she was brought to New York by a former British officer, and soon became celebrated in that half world just below society. Many famous men knew and loved her, among others Aaron Burr, vice president of the United States, and Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the treasury. Had feeling had existed between the men. This was accentuated by their double courtship, and Burr challenged Hamilton to a duel, killing his man on Weehawken heights July 11, 1804.

That same year Betty married Stephen Jumel, a wealthy French wine merchant, and bought the mansion which was to be made famous by her name. But society looked askance at her and she went to Paris. Napoleon was then at the height of his power. She gained access to the court and became one of the brilliant figures of Parisian life. Even Jumel's great fortune dwindled. She returned to America with him and by her skill helped him to gain new riches. Society not only accepted her, but paid her court.

Jumel died in an accident in 1830. Three years later Aaron Burr returned to America from wanderings abroad following his famous trial for treason. He resumed his law practice and began to shine forth with the brilliance of forty years before that Mme. Jumel remembered. They met again, and were married. He was seventy-five and she sixty-one. But in ten days they quarreled and he left her. A reconciliation ensued, then another quarrel, and Burr died alone on Staten Island not long afterward.

But Mme. Jumel's capacity to drain the cup of life was not yet extinct. In 1853 she went to Paris, was royally entertained by Napoleon III, and at her advanced age conceived the idea she really was a queen. Back she came to her mansion and lived in a semi-royal state. She lived until July 16, 1895.

One Danger Absent.

The luck might be worse.

Mistress—"When I engaged you, Susan, you told me that you had no male friends. Now, almost every time I come into the kitchen I find a man here."

Susan—"Bless you, mum, he ain't no friend of mine!"

"Then who is he?"

"My husband."

Milder Methods.

"Your constituents indulged in some rough work at the polls."

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum. "Sometimes I think it might be better to get back to the old days when a boss could hire a man instead of taking a club to him."

Are You Scrawny and Without Force?

The Way To Get Heavier
And Stronger.

Your weight tells your condition. Are you losing or are you gaining? If you want to put on solid, permanent flesh and fill your system with more force and energy, you should try a little DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST with your meals.

DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST enters into what you eat, aids your digestion and gives your body that healthful, strong energy and nourishing elements in the vitamins. These are destroyed in the process of cooking many of the ordinary foods.

If you are thin, too light for your height, weak and tired, if you are forever catching cold, you will find it worth while to try this simple experiment. First, measure and weigh yourself, then take DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST TABLETS, two of them with each meal. At the end of a week, measure and weigh yourself, and continue to take MEDIC-YEST TABLETS until you have gained all the weight you want.

It is not a matter of hearsay or opinion as to what it does for you—the mirror, the scales and tape measure will tell the story that cannot be disputed.

DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST TABLETS will positively form more solid flesh and increase energy when taken with every meal. DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST should not be used by anyone who is opposed to acquiring normal weight.

DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST is fully guaranteed by the makers. Always insist on having the genuine DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST. The J. H. Lease Drug Co., Floding Pharmacy and Bolger & French carry DR. CAREY'S MEDIC-YEST or can quickly procure it for you from their jobber—there is nothing else like it.—Adv.

CHRISTMAS 300 YEARS AGO

First Yuletide Eve of the Pilgrims
Was One Saturated With Grave
Fear of Attack.

SITTING about their campfires on Christmas eve, 300 years ago, the Pilgrims on shore heard a cry in the woods and jumped to their feet, expecting a sudden onrush of whooping Indians. The attack failed to materialize. How the Pilgrims spent Christmas is told in the journal they have left, which says: "No man rested that day."

The settlers were nervous, and again at night they left well-armed men on guard.

These poor fellows on shore did not have any Christmas beer to drink. About this time, it seems, the beer supply was running low, and Captain Jones of the Mayflower was guarding his stock. Apparently he put everybody on a water basis. But Christmas night he relented. Beer was served to those of the Pilgrims who were on the ship.
